BECKISH TRIPS

Day 1: Fly to Amsterdam, The Netherlands: Board your deluxe motorcoach to the airport for your flights to Amsterdam- a city famous for its many canals, art museums and much more.

Day 2: Amsterdam, The Netherlands: Arrive in Amsterdam and after clearing Customs, transfer to your beautiful Viking Longship. After boarding, the afternoon is yours to relax or explore the city on your own. You may wish to visit the Anne Frank House or the Rijksmuseum. (D)

Day 3: Amsterdam, The Netherlands: Amsterdam is a city of charming canals, elegant gabled houses, its patchwork of waterways forms about 90 islands connected by 1500 bridges. Today embark on an included canal tour by glass-topped boat to see architecture from the city's Golden Age. Take in some of Amsterdam's interesting sights as you pass a variety of vessels, including many charming houseboats moored canalside. (B, L, D)

Day 4: Scenic sailing & Enkhuizen, The Netherlands:

Early this morning, sail across the IJsselmeer (once known as the Zuiderzee) to Enkhuizen, once a small fishing village, now a prosperous harbor. During the 17th century, the city flourished as a center of maritime trade and shipbuilding. The silting up of the Zuiderzee at the end of the century ended this golden era; the sea eventually became an inland lake, cut off from the North Sea, with the completion of a dike in 1932. The era's wealth and prosperity remain evident in several impressive landmarks, including the Drommedaris, a former city gate and watchtower, and the striking Gothic-style Zuiderkerk. Explore the historic sights of Enkhuizen during an informative walking excursion. Enkhuizen is known as one of the most beautiful Dutch East India Company cities in the Netherlands and still exudes much of its Dutch Golden Age charm. (B, L, D)

Day 5: Arnhem, The Netherlands : A picturesque town nearly destroyed by WWII, Arnhem is graced with an array of beautiful parks and gardens. In 1443, Arnhem joined the Hanseatic League, the powerful merchant conglomerate that dominated Northern Europe's medieval trade world. During the 19th century it evolved into a more leisurely town, renowned for its scenic landscapes. Today visit Operation Market Garden, the sites of a crucial wartime operation and the basis for a 1977 Richard Attenborough Film "A Bridge Too Far" (B, L, D)

Day 6: Kinderdijk, The Netherlands: Today we arrive in Kinderdijk and disembark for a tour of this ingenious 18th-century community. Kinderdijk is most known for its 19 remarkably preserved 18th century windmills. Learn why the windmills were built and see how they work to help control flooding, then tour a working windmill to see its pumping mechanism and living quarters at this UNESCO World Heritage Site. (B,L,D)

Day 7: Antwerp, Belgium: A cosmopolitan city, Antwerp is one of the world's major seaports. Its unique atmosphere comes from the contrasts between old and new, commerce and art. The Old Town and the expansive Grote Markt are filled with narrow, winding streets and medieval guild houses. The Gothic Cathedral of Our Lady, Belgium's largest church, contains works by 17th century painter Peter Paul Rubens; he lived in the city and is entombed in the Church of St James. Antwerp is also renowned for diamonds and chocolate. Many diamond cutters can be found here alongside countless confectioners. See Antwerp's dazzling historic quarter up close as you explore by foot. (B, L, D)

Day 8: Middelburg & Veere, The Netherlands: The capital of Zeeland, Middelburg's historical significance can be seen in its well-preserved medieval buildings. The magnificent 15th century Gothic-style Town Hall stands as a testament to Middelburg's past grandeur. The soaring abbey tower of Lange Jen offers panoramic views of the city. After a walking tour of this beautiful area, we depart for Veere, a picturesque town also located in the province of Zeeland. Veere has a rich history dating back to the 13th century. A bustling port, the town grew in prominence during the Dutch Golden Age and became a hub for the wool and fishing industries. Pleasure yachts anchor in its harbor, which is lined with historic buildings and quaint shops. The annual Veere Regatta, one of the Netherlands' oldest and most prestigious sailing competitions, highlights the town's nautical traditions and draws enthusiasts from around the world. Explore the quaint town of Veere and its pretty marina during your walking tour. (B, L, D)

Day 9: Zeeland, The Netherlands:

Explore the remarkable Delta Works and the fascinating landscapes that they have forever altered. Drive with your guide into the Walcheren region in the southwestern corner of The Netherlands. Once an island, the dam across the Oosterschelde helped connect it to the mainland. In Ouwkerk, visit the Watersnoodmuseum and browse the exhibits that tell the story of the last great flood, which occurred in 1953. The museum is housed in three Phoenix caissons that were used to close dike breeches during the disaster. Continue to Zierikzee for a walking tour of this timeless town with a rich history tied to the tides. After taking in its seaside charms, travel to the Delta Works, a massive storm surge barrier. This ingenious system protects the area from floods while still allowing the tide to ebb and flow through the Oosterschelde. After time for photos, return to your ship. (B, L, D)

Day 10: Keukenhof Gardens & Amsterdam, The Netherlands: Walk the flower-lined footpaths of one of the most renowned flower gardens in the world. Every spring, a vibrant, multihued carpet blankets the 70 acres at Keukenhof Gardens. Some 7 million flowers are said to bloom here: tulips, daffodils, hyacinths, lilies, bluebells, crocuses and countless others form graceful ribbons along pathways and brooks and fill greenhouses and fields to bursting. Stroll among 100 varieties of tulips on these 15th-century hunting grounds. Breathe in glorious scents as you loop through Gerbrand's circular garden and mingle among sculptures and statuary. Admire Keukenhof Castle, where a countess once sorted herbs in her "kitchen garden." You can also step back in time in the historical garden, where old tulip varieties and 17th-century daffodils grace a castle's garden. (B, L, D)

Day 11: Flights Home:

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flights home taking with your wonderful memories of Holland & Belgium. Upon arrival home in the States, your motorcoach will be awaiting your arrival to transfer you to Connecticut. (B)

Finding Her Purpose
By Carol Wheelock Hall

Little girl, how could she know,
Her purpose was to live, learn, grow.
In teenage years began the plans
And future thoughts of where she'd land.

She saw her purpose with dreams anew,
With needed work to see it through.
School, a job, a mate someday,
Be good, do well. She'd find a way.

And life went on, she'd met some goals.
Her purpose grew with kids to hold.
She taught them as the best she knew
Ever hopeful as they learned and grew.

Hardy and willing she did her works.
Home and job satisfaction had some perks.
But age progressed year after year
And her purpose then became unclear.

Now old with time to think and plan...
"Stay well, be kind, do what you can!"
Purposes alter but were always around.
Not so different, her purpose was found.

THE GLOAMING

*An orb of shimmering light
 She began her climb in the evening sky.
 Sneaking through clouds, greeting stars,
 watching as the sun gave up his last rays
 to twilight.*

Ascending higher and higher above the horizon, stopping to see her reflection above the waters.

The moon.

*In various shapes of angora fluff
 waltzing, romantically, through the heavens enjoying their nightly journey.*

The clouds.

In prismatic shades of navy blue she is quiet in tiny ripples, the waters rest

The lake.

Her day is done, as darkness descends, she quiets

It's the

The Columbia Writing Connection

You may be wondering...

Are you a writer, or hoping to become one? The Columbia Writing Connection may be the group for you.

Our primary purpose? To offer space and time to fellow writers and would be writers, where they can share their work and gather valuable feedback from one another.

Anything else? Sure. We're a lively and friendly group, full of ideas and wanting to help. You'll learn about competitions, workshops and volunteer opportunities, along with hearing about the accomplishments of your fellow CWC writers. One other thing, and it's kinda hush hush...

a person in our group came up with a fun thing we're trying: the Litera Assembly Line. Pretty cool, and you just may want to try it, too. Come to one of our meetings to find out more.

When and where? We meet TWICE MONTHLY, on the second Monday of each month from 2 - 4 pm at the Beckish Senior Center AND on the last Wednesday of each month from 5:45 – 7:45 pm at the Saxton B. Little Library, both in Columbia Center.
